ORDER OF PUBLICATION.

Annie Winebrenner and Arie Winebrenner

Vs.

George Clinton Winebrenner, Catherine Winebrennermhis wife, Noah Winebrenner, Edith Winebrenner, his wife, Molly Metz, Henry Getzendanner, Anna Getzendanner, his wife, Lewis D. Getzendanner, Clara Border, Mary G. Briscoe, John P. Briscoe, her husband, and Phoebe Getzendanner, et al. No.11581 Equity.

In the Circuit Court for

Frederick County,

In Equity.

The Bill of Complaint filed in this cause alleges that Reverdy J. Winebrenner, husband of the said Annie Winebrenner and father of said Arie Winebrenner, late a resident of Frederick County State of Maryland, died on or about the month of May, 1927, leaving a last will and testament, duly probated and recorded in the office of the Register of Wills of Frederick County; a certified copy of which is filed as an exhibit; that after providing for the payment of his just debts and funeral expenses and bequeathing a thousand dollars to the Glade Church, said testator, by the provisions of his said Will, gave and bequeathed to his wife, Annie Winebrenner, the sum of six hundred dollars per annum during her life, and gave all the rest and residue of his estate to his daughter, Arie Winebrenner, for life, and, at her death, gave said rest and residue as follows; One-fifth thereof to his nephew, D. Charles Winebrennermson of his deceased brother David C. Winebrenner, and the other four-fifths thereof to such persons as under the then existing laws of the State of Maryland would be his next of kin had he died intestate at the time of the death of his said daughter, excluding, however, the issue and descendants of his deceased brother, David C. Winebrenner, and provided that said next of kin should take and be entitled to partcipate in said rest and residue of his estate in the same manner and in the same proportion as the then laws of the State of Maryland shall provide. And did further by the provisions of his said will advise his said daughter and others interested in his estate to make no effort to sell any of the real estate of which he might die seized and possessed during the life-
